

August 2022

Amit,

If you choose to figuratively cut the throats of your family members through heinous emails that is your choice and your prerogative. However, since you've chosen to aggressively come after my immediate family members, Turner family members, I will take a moment to set you straight. But first some housekeeping. If I have not demonstrated in the past that I do not care about what you or anyone on this Earth have to say about me specifically, then let me state clearly for the record. I.....Do....Not....Care....one iota....what you or anyone think or feel about me. That said, had it not come to my attention recently that you have this belief that the "Turners" are harassing you "again," and had you not mounted a futile attack on Ben Turner and his brothers or mother, I would have continued to remain silent respecting the words I texted to you some time ago. Those being, if you chose not to respond to me, I would receive and respect that as you're not wanting to speak to me at that point, or at any point in the future. And so, I left you alone. Now, you may not even read this. Frankly, it doesn't matter to me. But everyone else will.

I will address you, once and only once, because the situation has prompted me to. The truth is, I don't even want to send this you. But you're begging for it.

Angry, sad, volatile, hurt, vindictive, betrayed, vengeful, undeserving, unbalanced...a child, screaming from underneath a well-educated adult. That's what you are, that's what you've displayed, and you have every right to your feelings, emotions, actions, reactions and voice, to make all whom you deem in need of hearing such things hear it. That's your choice. But you're missing a very key element in your thought processes while you're exercising your rights. Everyone else has those same rights too.

If you truly wanted absolutely nothing to do with your family, then why spend so much time writing so many emails to them? Why not just absolutely cut off everybody and ignore them? Why even respond and dignify anything or anyone with a response? It takes no more than a simple blocking of email addresses. It seems like the prudent choice based on how you feel about everything. But the truth is, that's not what you want at all. You want very much to be heard. You want everyone to hear what you're feeling, and what you have been feeling for quite some time, and how you have experienced, perceived, and received the situations you've been put in. You want everyone to feel and experience your pain the way you felt it. You want those that are responsible for that pain to pay the price. You want blood. I understand that. I understand the want to reciprocate back to those who have wronged you so that they are aware of the wrongdoings they have placed upon you. It's human nature. I can't say that once or twice in my lifetime (maybe more) I have not also felt the same need to reciprocate upon those that I felt had done wrong by me. But, it achieved nothing. It was useless. It degraded my character more than it built my character. It empowered them, more than it did me.

One day you may know what it's like to be a parent. You will then know what it's like to make mistakes all the time no matter how much you try to do things right. Being a parent is the most difficult thing I have ever had to do and I would assume any parent has ever had to do. Every step of the way, you wonder if what you're doing is right. You will stay up nights thinking about events that have transpired during the day or the previous days and wonder if you might have considered doing things differently. But you can't go back, you can't change what you've done, what you've said, how you've said it, how you've done it. In most cases, you try your very best to not make that mistake again. And then you just end up making a different mistake. When a baby arrives, he or she does not come with a Handbook. And no matter how much advice you get from those experienced in parenting, no two children are the same. Life is one big circle of making mistakes, trying to learn from them and not make them again.

You speak of being mistreated and beaten in your adolescence. There are many varying degrees of being mistreated, beaten, reprimanded, disciplined. And I have to guess that every one of them sucks. Whether deserved or not deserved. I'm not justifying anything. I'm not justifying how you were treated, your perception of how you were treated, or the reality of how you were treated. I am saying that my perception of my discipline at the time, and my perception of my discipline now, are very different. You referenced almost dying due to your mistreatment. You and Ricky almost dying. But you didn't die. Nobody died.

When I was a child, and it was my time for discipline, I would receive spankings such that I could not sit after the spanking's, I would receive a slap whose feelings would remain long after the slap had concluded, I would even have ice cold water poured over my head. And you know what, I did not enjoy it. But I had it coming to me and I was certainly deserving of it. I know that my mother and father hated when they had to discipline me and my brother. But they knew it was their responsibility to raise their children in the best manner they knew how. Have you ever asked your parents about the discipline they received when they were children? Do you even care? Does it matter to you?

There is no question, that we are all products of our environment. And notwithstanding this current very real and long-term issue, you are actually quite a success story. Look at what you have accomplished. Amid all of this horrible, treacherous, disgusting treatment, you have managed to become a very well off, financially independent, educated, very successful and experienced attorney who doesn't need anybody at all. Why are you so angry? You're healthy, and have an incredible life ahead of you, without all of these horrible people to get in your way.

I can't say I blame you, on how specific members of the family have betrayed you. I might feel the same way looking at it through your eyes. The entire family banded together in full house meetings to design plots, plans, emails, phone calls and procedures with regards to Onita and I. You were put out front, you were made the spokesperson, you authored the emails. And then one day a great many members of the family, save a couple, had a change of heart. You seem to think everything changed when we dropped our first born off on your parents' doorstep. But I can assure you you're greatly mistaken as to the actual events. Your mother and father are incredible grandparents. My mother and father are incredible grandparents. None of this was ever forced upon them. Leveraged. They made their own adult decisions on who they wanted to be, how they wanted to be, what they wanted to do and they followed through with that. You give us too much credit to think that we somehow have that kind of absolute power over so many people.

You made reference to me needing my bullets and gun for some conversation that you would be willing to have in person with Onita. Just for clarification's sake, let's be clear, I do not own a gun. I own three guns. I am firearm safety certified to own these registered weapons and my 2nd amendment right provides me with all of the afforded rights that pertain thereto. I am also required to abide by the responsibilities that come with firearm ownership. That said, these firearms are for the specific purpose of home protection and range practice. Because God forbid I should ever have to pull out a loaded firearm in my home it means there is a clear and present mortal danger to someone in my household. And that is a terrible thought.

What I don't understand, is why on Earth you would suggest we would need a loaded firearm present for a conversation between you and Onita? Unless your intent was to cause mortal harm to her, there really doesn't seem to be any rational reason to have something like that present. Was that a coded threat? I can't imagine you would do something as self-destructive as that, being the astute attorney you are. Why you would put anything like that in writing, knowing just how damning it would be to you, and any future career in politics (which you had once revealed to me was a goal of yours), doesn't make much sense. It must have just been a typo.

So, you can send me all the "FUCK YOU, FUCK YOU, FUCK YOU" responses you want. And I'll tell you to get in line with anyone and everyone else who has those same feelings. The line is long and stretches around the block a few times. You can get in the back. I'm not specifically or remotely interested with anything you might have to say about me. Neither is my father.

And as far as your deciding to state that I have allegedly harassed you through a "secret email account" on your blog, that is asinine. Let's just be smart about this. Even if I had a secret email account, why would I tell you, firstly, and then why would I send you multiple harassing emails from it? I mean really, it's not a very strategic move. Why not just create a new secret email account. Or twenty secret email accounts for that matter. Maybe the person who has the "MichaelFinn" email account is someone named Michael Finn, and he just doesn't like you, or your blog.

This business of some legal documents regarding Boileau vs Berkshire Hathaway is laughable. It's a real legal case, dismissed sua sponte for its unsound ludicrous, delusional, and absurd claims and basis, but I am not tied to it. Do you actually believe the government gave Berkshire Hathaway one trillion dollars to "monitor" one individual? All of these multinational businesses were in cahoots to go after this one guy? Come on. This was the plaintiffs attempt to get paid. You believe that my being a freemason indicts me? Have you read the whole case? Or have you just cherry picked the parts you want to use? I have attached it to this email. Though it is true that I own stock in both Berkshire Hathaway class A shares as well as Berkshire Hathaway class B shares, I certainly don't hold any power within the company to create any headaches for you. I also own stock in the other companies that are the "et al" part of the defendant group, those being American Express, Facebook, Microsoft, Tesla, Amazon, and Apple. But so does anyone and everyone who owns a 401K, 403B or mutual fund retirement account. Have those hundreds of thousands of investors wronged you as well? Or is it the roughly 6 million freemasons worldwide of every nationality, race, religion and creed who have wronged you?

The great reality of it is, I have absolutely no energy or time to devote to you. Truthfully, not only do I hold no animosity towards you whatsoever, I simply don't care. And it is not that I don't care about you, it's that I don't care to engage in this melee with you. Let's just hard line it. If you believe all the fabricated things that you've said with regards to me or my family, that I have just identified, then you are in serious need of medical attention. On the other hand, if your purpose is to attempt to just create drama for me or around me, then you're wasting your time. This is not exactly new ground for me. Wink Wink. I have been here before, many times.

This belief that my families' ancestral roots have come to bear and have created mystical, magical curses and whatever other metaphysical manifestations and kabbalistic energies you suggest have been visited upon you is really grabbing at what remaining straws are left. No offense, but no one in my family is remotely interested in affecting your life. You are not on anyone's radar.

So, let's just get into it for the record. Yes, it is true that my grandmother of Romanian decent had Jewish-Gypsy blood. I have been told that many came to her to have her read their fortunes and futures. I cannot verify or validate any of this as she passed away when I was about 12 years old. Yes, it has been suggested that her three sons, my two uncles and my father were bestowed with certain gifts. However, I cannot confirm or deny any of those gifts, as in my 48 years I have never seen any of them practiced. It is true that I am a freemason, my father is a freemason, and my grandfather (who passed away when I was about 5 or 6 years old) was a freemason. All of these things I had discussed with you some time ago because you either expressed interest in the subject matter of masonry, and so we had a conversation, or because you yourself were interested in the mystic kabbalah phenomenon and we spoke openly about my grandmother's history and ties to the art. So, now you have taken these conversations you sought out and twisted, weaved and weaponized them into your narrative to you parents. By the way, just to correct you on one other point you expressed in one of your lovely emails, the "Fez" hat you are referring to is worn by Shriners, not Masons. All Shriners are Masons, but not all Masons are Shriners. Just since we're dotting I's and crossing T's.

In your email you said, you, Amit, know enough about "Jews" to not believe anything coming out of my mouth. So, why did you believe all of the information I provided to you during our conversations, and of which you are using as a basis for your arguments now? Should we redact and reissue that statement in the email and say rather, you, Amit, know enough about "Jews" to know that everything I say is a lie, or it's the truth, or maybe both, or maybe neither? I wonder why you believe you are a target, and why you are clearly paranoid about it. Unless it's just about using me and my family as a scapegoat to get to your mother and father. To get their attention and have them run around in circles...again. Have them feel completely torn up inside...again. In your past emails, you very clearly stated you did not want any contact with your father or your mother. So why contact them now...again? You've been left alone, as you requested. Or maybe that's not what you wanted at all. Let me pose another rhetorical question. Wouldn't it make more sense with my family's great dark magic to have everyone in your family under our absolute control? Such that even you could not see what was happening? It certainly would be more strategic and effective to me. What makes you so powerful that only you can see through it and fight it the way you are? I'll go ahead and answer that for you. It's easy... to be omniscient and powerful.... when you're fighting nothing at all.

First, your own mother and father were the targets, I believe that you eloquently refer to them regularly as "DumbFuck daddy" and "Slave Biological Mother." Your words, not mine. Then Atil, then Onita, then Nik. I'm not surprised that I and my family have become the new target. I've been anticipating and waiting for it. It makes sense though. As I have always been the "real problem" in your family, right? Prior to my arrival, this family never experienced any issues. When Mike arrived, everything fell apart. That's the story. Mike, once he arrived, is directly responsible for everything that has happened to you, Onita, Nik, Atil, Vik, Ricky, Junior, Alvin, Albert, Reema, Seema, Poonam, Eric, Samantha, Ryan, Darlini, Don, Dale....have I left anyone out? Everyone can tie whatever their issues are back to my entrance into this family and my family's mystical controls. Sounds silly, doesn't it?

Is it possible, and highly likely, you believe that due to your sending of all those emails and copying my father, that we (the Turners) have coordinated a retributionary retaliation with our superpowers? Is it because you did not get any response from my father due to those emails, as clearly, they were meant to insight a response, from either he or I, that you were startled or became unhinged, and then scared as to what the result would be of your failed intention? You were not seeking fatherly advice from my father. Why would you seek any advice from the man who raised me, Mike, the spawn of evil himself? Mike, the person whom you have hated or seen through for, as you stated in one of your emails, "half of your life?" (Or about 20 years) Your timeline is severely flawed. I mean really, take a step back and view this with the analytical mind you have. This is all you coordinating fantastic misdirection for those that are emotionally compromised and/or choose to believe it. However, it's second-rate checkers play to me. Read between the lines. Nothing personal. You're out of your league.

I will say, it is very curious that you have not included me on these emails. Or directly, first person, confronted me. I have never been copied on any of them. But I have seen every one of them. It would stand to reason, if you're truly attempting to perform "curse reversals" or "whatever" you would go for the head of the dragon, no? As, I am the shadow puppeteer correct? It all starts with me. Certainly, if it were not for me, none of the "Turners" would be of any consequence.

You've demanded responses from my family. You believe you are entitled to it? Deserving? Is it not painfully obvious and evident that no one in my family is succumbing to your demands? No one gives it the time of day. I have only elected to respond to you, this once, because you really need to hear it. And, maybe, there is a small remnant of who Amit is that's still left in you. Your hate, and anger, and pain have weakened you. Made you delusional, irrational, self-destructive. You must find a way to come out of this. If for no one else, yourself.

Look. I'm not here to tell you I love you, or I'm here for you, or rub your back, or tell you everything is going to be okay. You have an entire family that's been trying to do that for you, which is more than most people. If pissing all over them is what makes you feel good, then by all means, keep on doing what you're doing, at least for as long as they'll put up with it. I am copying all that have been copied in the emails you have sent, because I do not want any "accidental" edits to magically appear. I'm sure you understand. These words are written by me and sent by me.

Here's the good news. Not to worry. We will walk away. We will not become confrontational with you. We will walk away, like we always have done in the past from nonsensical confrontation. It's simply not worth the energy. And then, now, you can go back to your parents' house. It will be just you and them, and you can work on repairing what has been broken.

Things look a lot different through the rearview mirror Amit. Hopefully there will be something there by the time you choose to look back. I will never hold any of this against you or think any less of you. See, Amit, that's my superpower. I believe you are dealing with something very real internally that deserves to be explored and addressed.

In addition, here are some of the recent the emails which have prompted me to respond, for any who have not had the pleasure of reading.

Good Luck.
Mike

Benson Turner:

Your son is one of the most disgusting human beings I've ever met, with no honesty or integrity since day one of meeting him over 20 years ago. Today, he's the same person, who places a fake front for others all the while utilizing manipulative intent to get what he wants. I've given you the opportunity to respond as his father, provided that you are alleged to be "family". Seriously, what does "family" mean to you? At least with my family, they try to be decent human beings, including "generosity" with each other, something "HIGHLY LACKING" on the Turner Marriage since my biological mother FORCED-ME to be collegial with your son and her daughter. She had lied to me and stated that she was only going to quickly help the kids, then she finally confessed years later that it was bullshit, that she wanted her daughter and the grandkids. This was bullshit, as evidenced by the numerous family member missing from my late Uncle's funeral, the only relative in my family with MORALS and ETHICS (Fuck Dogma!). Instead of being holistic and helping family, in my family because of what your son brought, it is now better to be self-centered, manipulative, and only looking for personal gain, as evidenced by the only two who SUSPICIOUSLY supported the marriage between "White Mike" and "Nitu". The only thing your family has shown me so far, is how much you can use others. This seems to go in-line with the conversations Mike has about you, regarding the "private conversation" you had with him and his brother growing up. Very interesting, and evidence of your "Fathering". I SUGGEST YOU RESPOND TO THE CONTENTS OF THOSE CONVERSATIONS, so we have a clear idea of who my brain-dead biological-sister married. The only intelligent-thing I've heard since seeing my sister since she's been married, was with regards to the "MIKE-CENTERED" pompous house that he purchased, was when she stated "WHO'S GOING TO CLEAN IT". Since looking at my sister, everything appears to be MIKE. Hence, my conversations with other relatives that MIKE is a wannabe Donald Trump, as portrayed by liberals, with the same self-centered chauvinistic ideology, elitist pyramid schemes known as "white privilege", all the while hiding behind "free market" alleged "Financial conservative", when we all know that is bullshit between the two parties. Nonetheless, because your son is so INDOCTRINATED, I can't have an intelligent conversation with him, and he has always spread his poison all throughout my family, as witnessed by my Uncle, who again is probably the only one if the family who had MORALS and ETHICS (Fuck Dogma!).

Your son walked into the marriage with no integrity and with a dishonest attitude, using his bolstered-resume as a "poor excuse of a man", when we all knew his faults. Him being Jewish and Freemason, and my interest in Spirituality and the Mysteries, I've compared my conversations with both Michael and another relative-Freemason, while Mike is ever evasive the other mason was extremely helpful, though I will not be recommending occulted-egregores moving forward who do not disclose their structures, as such societies fall prey to the societal-egregores as a control-mechanism for which they ignore. THE "INEFFABLE NAME" IS OCCULTED-COLONIZATION. I've purchased, studied, and was influenced by too much Masonic-esoterica material to trust Mike's mouth, not just on Freemasonry, but Judaism as well. I despise the Old Testament indoctrination, but love Rabbi Yochai, which by many Rabbinic standards means I'm studying it correctly. I cannot share the information I learned with my family, because of the numerous-prejudices built up "DUE TO YOUR SON". Between FREEMASONRY, JUDAISM, and MORALS and ETHICS, what did you teach your son? Growing up, we were taught to question western culture, and most of us politically ended up despising the "US Flag" for identity politics understanding the racial-perspectives of "manifest destiny". Nonetheless, it was when going through Constitutional Law, that I understand the true-value of being "selfless" and arguing what would be best for humanity, in a FREE-OBJECTIVE world, not a Judeo-Christan universe created by a corporate hierarchical scheme perpetuated by interest rates and privileged manipulative laws with titles such as "Patriot Act" with the ability to easily see through propaganda-sales as a distraction such as "9-11" as evidenced by the commission report. Connecting George W. Bush to Saudi Arabia (Hitler to the Arab World), and knowing the roots of Nazis as a Freemason created Thule who wrote a book on the Islamic disconnected letters, and of course Cheney being a high ranking Freemason whose Halliburton played a role during Vietnam, again WHAT MORALS AND ETHICS DID YOU TEACH YOUR SON! You're not going to have these conversations on Fox News.

Prior to last December (2021), I went from being a fan of Freemasonry, using their concepts of brotherhood and hierarchical "pathworking" to help an individual evolve. Nonetheless, since the conversations with my biological-sister and then our cousin, your son's drinking buddy and fellow shareholder of his defunct corporation for which he continuously misrepresents, in last December, a significant amount of energy has pummeled its way into my home. Entities ranging from Djinn to African based "Hexes", both of which have made my home intolerable without my own efforts of cleansing and curse reversal. I'm having trouble removing a significant amount of energy-meditatively, much of it angrily arises and tries to control me, when I reference BEN TURNER! Hence, the root of such curses. Once again, I'm doing curse reversals. Once again, I've studied Freemasonry. Once again, your son cannot be trusted begging the question WHO IS BEN TURNER? In continuing to remove Ben Turner curses, and Freemason curses, I have a completely different understanding of Freemasonry, where such organization are MIND CONTROL blocking third-eye inspiration, and hence anti-spirituality, and rather ANTI-EASTERN RELIGIONS. I've managed to remove a significant amount of tension in my head through a few short rituals, where strong use of the Shemhamphorash appears requiring balancing, something which should be known in "SPECULATIVE FREEMASONRY". In addition, though the curses are much stronger since December 2021, they are bringing up issues from when I first met Michael, indicating long-term cursing where I am suffering experiences very much like our cousin who is prone to anger outbursts. After morning meditation in clearing my head, it becomes very obvious that something foreign enters me, expands inside of me, and then gives me an irrelevant emotional-anger outburst, mostly directed to Michael and Ben Turner (there's a room full of people, and a female keeps entering me as well), which then requires removal to return back to normal. COINCIDENCE?

Who did my sister marry, and what family did she marry into, if her husband is not simply my cousin's dumbass drinking-buddy, who shares a taste in HEDONIST "Hip Hop", not culturally-evolving indicating movement from Oppression to Success in a GDP Colonial World. In other words, privileged Trump with a "small-family-loan" for a "million-dollars" mentality to start his empire. I'm still wondering about the Turner Lawyer, whose name Mike has never appeared to give. Was he invited to the wedding and did he attend as a "family member"? I'm extremely curious about his abilities as well, and I do believe you have surrounded yourselves by others similarly-situated. THESE QUESTIONS ARE HIGHLY REASONABLE, AND BEG TRUTHFUL ANSWERS, PROVIDED THE FACT THE TURNER-FAMILY HAS BEEN BASICALLY A CURSE ON MY FAMILY MEMBERS, creating even more separation since their elopment-wedding and irresponsible child-bearing, kids for which many use as manipulative-bribery.

Seriously WHO IS BEN TURNER?

1. Michael Finn

-Michael Shared his "anonymous" email with me, provided that it was a strange name. He then stated that he used his real name "michael" because people would think he's not using his real name, and he used a differentiation of his brothers first name. I remember laughing at him, because that was an asshole move. He harassed me on my blog, and his responses are very much "White Mike", with the same lying-ass attitude that we've always known from "White Mike" and one of the main-reasons why none of us supported his marriage. Not only do we have the disgusting male-chauvinsit attitude, one that has distanced other family members, but the man has never been able to describe anything with "integrity" often sounding like a opinionated-journalist news-hack foaming at the mouth. I already have emails with other relatives of him giving terrible legal advice, accounting as well for which I will not opinion. Nonetheless, he has shown nearly over half my lifetime, to be completely fake in both mouth and attitude. The questions regarding both JUDAISM and FREEMASONRY need to be answered, or who seriously did Nitu elope with? Honestly, Nitu was way more liberal than I am, and she voted for Trump?

2. The case of Berkshire

Answer the questions on the FREEMASONS! I already know enough Judaism to trust anything from Mike. Nonetheless, does the parent who raised "White Mike" have any "Integrity"?

3. Turner Lawyer

Ben Turner is a "medium", and the family lawyer has "never made a bad decision", and never lost a case, but will. THIS IS HIGHLY RELEVANT INFORMATION. What did the family do to protect the brother? Any other occultism involved? Ben Turner uses his mind as a "medium" to channel other people. I use my mind as a "medium" to channel, well, the cultures that I'm studying. In doing "Curse Reversals", Ben Turner's "Mind" shows up a lot, not "Michaels". Could this be due to his "mediumship", but a significant amount of outright "violent, malevolent, and actually verbal" energy keeps coming to me, when I'm attempting to move Ben Turner's energy out. This is the first that I heard on how Ben Turner uses his abilities, but his mind, is what began messing with me in December, not Michaels, and I only included him in the emails to get his "Fatherly" take on the family dilemma. Nonetheless, Djinn and Shemhamephorash keep coming from Ben Turner, increased by Masonic objects. They enter the body, they linger in the digestive, both which are felt, and then they try to possess you and influence your thoughts and attitude. Easily noticeable for anyone practicing "empty" also known as "samadhi", which seems to counter everything, leading me to consider "what is Freemasonic Enlightenment?" in comparison. In terms of Djinn and Freemason, does Mike know who "King Solomon" is or the biblical "Hiram" from Tyre, and how certain "energies" needed to be "bound" in order to "build", contrary to the term "Free-mason"?

4. Cabin

Do a financial audit on the cabin, pay the losses before settling with parasitic family members, who mostly used our efforts towards their cabin-vacation home while you were babysitting their kids.

1. Case for Boileav Vs Berkshire Hathaway. He said he only knows the company because he purchased some stocks with them but he does not know anything about the case.

2. Anonymous email;
He said, he does not have any anonymous email under Michael Finn. He said, he does not need to have any anonymous mail and he does not know any one with that email.

3. He said he did not know what Djinn is and he quickly googled it and found out it is just Islamic thing.

4. The telepathy information, he said his grand mother (his dad's mom), was a Romanic Gypsy and a fortune teller. She had some knowledge from Kabala. She passed away when he ( Mike), was 12 years of age. Only he was told that his uncle had some knowledge of telling people's fortune by holding that person's object, like wallet in his hand. and his dad did not have any knowledge of telepathy or fortune telling Only other people can use his dads mind to channel to other people as medium.

I was going to ask you how we are going to clean both our houses, but you sent the information, thank you.
I printed it out and we both read through.
We had half a bottle of Florida water at home, but this has been sitting in the cabinet for a long time. Do you think this would still be good. I remember you gave this long time ago.

Both Shiva and Kali are the best, but the Djinn play "mimic". Indian deities (sky "aliens") are the most powerful, next to the "next generation of deities" including Jewish-Muslim deities (Sky "aliens" from Phoenicia-Canaan), the Djinn are called categorized with Shedim in Judaism. Freemason is the problem, they are "medieval occultists" (speculative freemasonry) where they study everything, from the Old Testament deities "One God" "Great Architect" "Jehovah (YHVH)" perspective. Their god same with Jewish, is either Phoenician "El" or Sumerian "Enlil" both who hold the "tablet of destiny", which is why their magic is powerful, and often banned by Raabis. Hebrew is just like "Sanskrit" with incantations, that use sound like a "telephone number". If you remember Mom's blowout in Cuba ... it was at the freemasons house. A freemason started the African Spiritism cult-group known as Abakua, so they are knowledgeable on African black magic, including Vodoun and Obeah in Jamaica. The African religions are not so much "sky aliens" but earth-grounded energy such as nature-spirits, and dead things (necromancy) like ancestors. Because they are grounded, they are hurt more and are quicker, but more chaotic.

For the items in the box that I have, I will deal with it somehow, and get rid of it if I can't figure out how to overpower it. I also have many books upside down and facing the wall, which seems to work.

1. Djinn

-Seal of Solomon

(Save the image, and you print. If you right click on the image after saving, it will say "print on the bar", if you print that way, you can make 9 copies on one page. I have them printed and spread over the house.
-Just as the "Djinn Kings and Elders" for help in clearing your home. You can use my name to say that you are related to me. Djinn are fire elements, not exactly spirits, or demons/angels.
-Santa Muerte, death who is worshipped like Mother Mary, is also very good for all clearing, and both malevolent/benevolent so she can curse and bless.

2. African (Hex)

-Buy Florida Water to use as "holy water" to scatter around the home. (I've paid somewhere between $5-10 per bottle, find free or combined shipping)
-You can also dip your fingers in water, and bless the water as "Consecrated Holy Florida Water". Sprinkle this everywhere, in ever corner, where you sleep, where you keep the food, etc.
-You can ask "Elegba" for help in clearing away "hexes". Again use my name to say you're related to me.

Hi Amit,

I am still talking to Turners (Mike) and I will answer your questions by tommorrow.

I also wanted to tell you few things regarding the dark energy (Djin). I did not know, that Jewish people evoked that energy. I thought only Muslims do that.

Can you block it by meditating on Lord Shiva or Maata Kaali. Dinn is demonic dark energy.

As you mentioned, you have some items in a box in Laundry closet. By getting rid of that might help block the bad energy coming in the house. If you would like to get rid of any things you suspect is giving bad energy. You cannot throw it in any trash can, in your building complex then let me know. You can leave it outside, in the parking garage or mail box lobby with my name on it. I can come and pick it up and throw it some where far from your building.

Meanwhile I am discussing with Mike, if they can stop this energy from bothering you and even coming into your house.

You made me us realize lots of things we were doing without even thinking. Everything you were telling mommy, we can now see its coming true and we have already started to distance ourselves from family members that have been taking advantage of us.

The cabin is in Escrow to be sold. Nik got his loan approved and he is buying us out for $100,000.00.

I am also planning on retiring in 4 to 5 years from now and wanted to use the cabin money to purchase something in Hawaii before I retire, this will give me better chance of getting the loan approved. We have not discussed this to any one yet. We both are working and able to save some extra money also.

I am letting you know this so that you know, that we are doing things for us only and not think of anyone else.

Your Father

All masonic material that I've purchased are placed in a box in the washer/dryer room. I cannot walk by it, without something grabbing-me, possessing-me, and harassing me. I own a masonic "fez" hat, which is basically telepathic communication, and it takes me to Ben Turner. When I say to remove Ben Turner's curses, it works. When I use the "seal of solomon", it works. Meaning it is Djinn. I ask the Djinn to remove the curse it works, but someone keeps sending them on a daily-basis, and this has been since December. The way these Djinn work, Vee makes more sense, and it seems these curse-reversals are having me picture those times when Nitu was trying to get married. These Djinn are continuous and harass me when I meditate. These are only one of the entities that are being sent to my home, and living in the trash can, coming in everytime I open the door, etc. They are sending them around the clock.

I'm only writing to memorialize the situation, including how both you and your wife respond. Other than money, which is basically bribery-attitude, you've spent a lifetime harassing your children.

Throughout my whole life, your wife spent her days yelling at all of us, beating me, and gossiping on the phone. The best memories I have of your wife, are because I'm being nice and trying to maintain her anger issues, like what happened in Cuba. Why would anyone go anywhere with both of you, given that she is prone to throwing anger-abusive tantrums anywhere and everywhere with a terrible anger-issue that never went checked, with you just following along like her accomplice "butler". Throughout my whole life, your wife would beat me for things Ricky and the Modesto family would do, even if I was innocent. Throughout my whole life, your wife would use me as a punching-bag, including the morning when she locked-herself out of the house, and chose to come to my room thereafter and yell at me for her own stupidity. I know this is why you don't talk to your wife, to avoid her anger tantrums, which has been her basic means of communication with you, despite the stupid outdated-romance novel you tried to fabricate about her, describing a personality I have never seen from her. Even all throughout law school, your wife kicked me out of the house for having a girlfriend, your wife harassed me every weekend when I didn't come home to server the Narayan Family, including when I kicked you out on the 4th of July before the bar provided that I had begged the family not to come to my home provided that I had an early exam the next day. Your wife even called me and harassed me the first morning of my bar-exam, as if she wanted me to fail. She tried doing the same-thing when Nitu had Marcell, when both Poly and I had stopped her from calling Nitu and harassing her for her own selfish emotional tantrum. Something that should have been your job as a father.

In this lifetime, both you and you wife have never listened to your children, and have chosen to use them as slaves for the Narayan Cult, with Atil growing up sexually assualting me and Mumma being the only who stopped him when I was a child. Nikil only cares for drinking and partying, and since he isn't bringing in money, chose to use the family resources for his personal gain hiding behind his welfare-bringing children. Nitu is trying to do the same as Nik, as Nitu has stated in her prior emails, she would not have come back to both you and mom if she didn't have children. Both of them just needed babysitters, and found a free one that they didn't have to manage. Instead of taking care of your own family, you used your own family to take care of them, from sending these men 10-15 years older than me food on the weekends, giving them parties and cleaning up after them. Nitu and I weren't allowed to have friends, and hence no birthdays. In the Collett House, the Narayans had more birthdays than your own kids. Your wife even took Christmas away stupidly saying we're Hindu, despite sending her children to a fanatical christian school. I still have memories of your wife taking my presents, and regifting them to modesto family members so she wouldn't have to go shopping. Today, your stupid asses have expected me to give a christmas to a Jewish family, one that chose to elope and party without you, but have no problem using you to serve them, and admitingly not caring about you by saying once again, Nitu would "not have come back if she didn't have children".

Neither you or your wife could teach your children anything, maybe banking or "interest rates" from your wife. But you use "traditions" without understanding the "religious" underpinnings to make yourself look-better, to hide behind Daada, for your hierarchical gossip train. You barely talked to your children which Nitu even admits in your sessions with Jerry and Suzy, your wife doesn't have anything to teach just yells/barks all day and then complains about the family-drama most of which she created.

Remember this next time you're cleaning the Turner toilet or mowing their lawn, while Nik drinks calling himself a "Master" while wearing my STOLEN clothing and using my other personal items. If he had any intelligence, he would write to Atil for the emails of me correcting White Mike's poor legal advice. Of course, who does the "Master" listen to, it wasn't his father? Both him and child-molesting Atil are hiding behind their kids and Nik with bankruptcy, so that I don't sue them. Nonetheless, because it is truthful-matter as evidenced by emails, I will be publicly talking about my sick life in the family you raised me in and what these members continue to do with their lives and selfishly with others. In this family without Daada, I can only see illiterate-arrogance, using their narcissism and narcissist agendas to raise children. Thank god for school teachers, and mandatory-education.

Moreover, Michael Turner told me his anonymous email address under Michael Finn when we moved his furniture into his attic. He decided to harass me on my blog.

IF MY LAW DEGREE IS STILL ON YOUR WALL, TAKE IT DOWN AND THROW IT IN THE TRASHCAN.

Hi Amit,
I remember, Michael telling us about this, but at that time I did not pay much attention. I also remember you were telling us he gave you book on Kabala. I thought it was just a simple reading about Jewish religion. When I see him next, I will ask him again.

I will read through and understand about Law suit you mention.

Have the Turners answers for this case. Boileau v. Berkshire Hathaway.

Since sending those emails in December, they haven't left me alone.

I know the difference between "empty" (clear headed), "invocation" (possession), "thoughts" (normal), and outright disturbances with significantly higher volume with messages clearly not having to do with my normal routine.

This also answers a lot of the questions surrounding Nitu/Michaels marriage. I also practice what they practice, and know how their symbols work.
